DESCRIPTION

Objectives

- To familiarize students with the fundamental principles, rights, and duties outlined in the Constitution of India.
- To encourage MBA students to adopt ethical decision-making and responsible business practices aligned with constitutional values.
- To promote understanding and appreciation of the democratic framework that governs the nation.
- To motivate students to contribute positively to society as informed and responsible citizens.
- To provide a platform for discussions on contemporary issues in governance, law, and ethics, reinforcing the importance of constitutional adherence in the corporate world.

Key Takeaways

1. Students gained insights into the historical background and significance of the Indian Constitution, emphasizing its role as the foundation of democracy and governance.
2. The event highlighted the fundamental principles of the Constitution—justice, equality, liberty, and fraternity—and their relevance in personal and professional life.
3. Students were encouraged to understand their responsibilities as future business leaders in upholding constitutional values and contributing to the socio-economic development of the country.

4. The session provided a detailed explanation of fundamental rights and duties, inspiring students to align their professional conduct with these principles.

5. Students were motivated to pledge adherence to constitutional values in their academic and professional journeys, becoming ambassadors of ethical leadership.

Learning Outcomes

1. They gain insights into the historical significance, core principles, and structure of the Indian Constitution, including its role in shaping governance and societal norms.

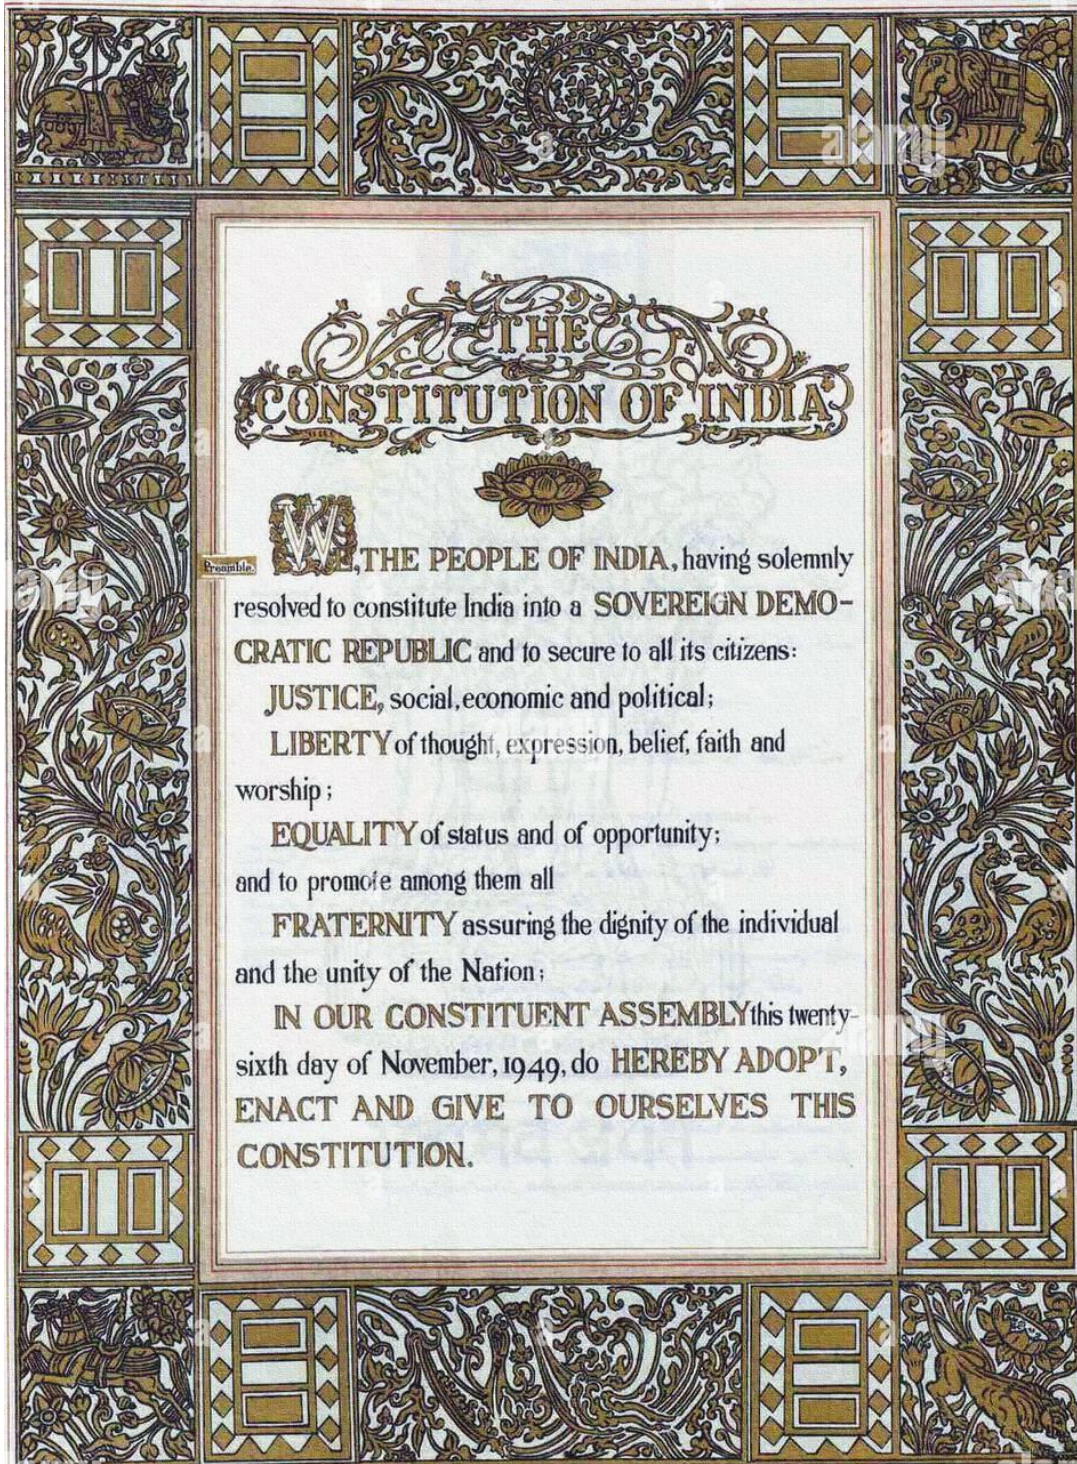

2. They also recognize the significance of fundamental rights and duties enshrined in the Constitution and their implications for individuals and organizations in a democratic society.

3. Students were able to explore how constitutional provisions influence business laws, economic policies, and regulatory frameworks impacting corporate practices.

4. They foster a commitment to active participation in democratic processes and initiatives for social and economic development.

5. They also understand the role of responsible citizenship and leadership in upholding constitutional values in personal, professional, and societal contexts.
